Margaret Jensen 1939-40.

Dear Margaret
Happiness
to you
Edna B.

Dear Margaret,
Your eyes are like diamonds
your figure is fine
God bless you my darling,
I'm glad your not mine.

P. S. I don't mean it.
Success to you.

Raymond Forsley.

Dear Margaret,

Well here I go again, but you might as well have my scribbling here as anywhere else. I guess I won't write in one next year, but I'll have one so you can write in it.

We've had a lot of fun being neighbors haven't we?

You sure are lucky you haven't got two more years of school like I have.

We've had some fun together when we got mad at Zelda and Nathsyn. And when we used to go with those dear little dumb saps from Paradise. And when we ~~wrote~~ ^(mis spelled) school last year with Homer and Jack. (I think I wrote that in last years book) Oh well we should worry.

If you would pick strawberries this summer we could ^{have} more fun than a picnic.

I sure wish Rhoda hadn't gone with us last night and we could have come and got you, we all could have had more fun. Rhoda and Rue sure were going to town back there in the back seat. Oh well what can we expect.

I sure think you're a swell kid and I wish you a lot of success and happiness. We've had fun being neighbors all our lives even if we do have a fight once in a while. Well I guess I sign off for now.

Dear Margaret;
